FREEDMEN'S BUREAU PRESERVATION PROJECT

This National Archives microfilm publication is part of a multiyear project to microfilm the field office records of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands (Freedmen's Bureau). The project was made possible by the United States Congress through The Freedmen's Bureau Records Preservation Act of 2000 (Public Law 106-444). When completed, all of the field records for the States of Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, and for the District of Columbia will be available on microfilm. For microfilm availability and description, view both the microfilm catalog Black Studies: A Select Catalog of National Archives Microfilm Publications and the National Archives microfilm locator on our web site at www.archives.gov.

INTRODUCTION

On the 133 rolls of this microfilm publication, M1904, are reproduced the records of the Kentucky headquarters for the Assistant Commissioner and his staff officers and the subordinate field offices of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1865-1872. These records consist of bound volumes and unbound records, containing materials that include letters sent and received, monthly reports, registers of complaints, labor contracts, and other records relating to freedmen's claims and bounty payments. These records are part of the Records of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, Record Group (RG) 105.

HISTORY AND ORGANIZATION

The Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, also known as the Freedmen's Bureau, was established in the War Department by an act of Congress on March 3, 1865 (13 Stat. 507). The life of the Bureau was extended twice by acts of July 16, 1866 (14 Stat. 173), and July 6, 1868 (15 Stat. 83). The Bureau was responsible for the supervision and management of all matters relating to refugees and freedmen, and of lands abandoned or seized during the Civil War. In May 1865, President Andrew Johnson appointed Maj. Gen. Oliver Otis Howard as Commissioner of the Bureau, and Howard served in that position until June 30, 1872, when activities of the Bureau were terminated in accordance with an act of June 10, 1872 (17 Stat. 366). While a major part of the Bureau's early activities involved the supervision of abandoned and confiscated property, its mission was to provide relief and help freedmen become self-sufficient. Bureau officials issued rations and clothing, operated hospitals and refugee camps, and supervised labor contracts. In addition, the Bureau managed apprenticeship disputes and complaints, assisted benevolent societies in the establishment of schools, helped freedmen in legalizing marriages entered into during slavery, and provided transportation to refugees and freedmen who were attempting to reunite with their family or relocate to other parts of the country. The Bureau also helped black soldiers, sailors, and their heirs collect bounty claims, pensions, and back pay.

The act of March 3, 1865, authorized the appointment of Assistant Commissioners to aid the Commissioner in supervising the work of the Bureau in the former Confederate states, the border states, and the District of Columbia. While the work performed by Assistant Commissioners in each state was similar, the organizational structure of staff officers varied from state to state. At various times, the staff could consist of a superintendent of education, an assistant adjutant general, an assistant inspector general, a disbursing officer, a chief medical officer, a chief quartermaster, and a commissary of subsistence. Subordinate to these officers were the assistant superintendents, or subassistant commissioners as they later became known, who commanded the subdistricts.

The Assistant Commissioner corresponded extensively with both his superior in the Washington Bureau headquarters and his subordinate officers in the subdistricts. Based upon reports submitted to him by the subassistant commissioners and other subordinate staff officers, he prepared reports that he sent to the Commissioner concerning Bureau activities in areas under his jurisdiction. The Assistant Commissioner also received letters from freedmen, local white citizens, state officials, and other non-Bureau personnel. These letters varied in nature from complaints to applications for jobs in the Bureau. Because the assistant adjutant general handled much of the mail for the Assistant Commissioner's office, it was often addressed to him instead of to the Assistant Commissioner.

In a circular issued by Commissioner Howard in July 1865, the Assistant Commissioners were instructed to designate one officer in each state to serve as "general Superintendents of Schools." These officials were to "take cognizance of all that is being done to educate refugees and freedmen, secure proper protection to schools and teachers, promote method and efficiency, correspond with the benevolent agencies which are supplying his field, and aid the Assistant Commissioner in making his required reports." In October 1865, a degree of centralized control was established over Bureau educational activities in the states when Rev. John W. Alvord was appointed Inspector of Finances and Schools. In January 1867, Alvord was divested of his financial responsibilities, and he was appointed General Superintendent of Education.

An act of Congress, approved July 25, 1868 (15 Stat. 193), ordered that the Commissioner of the Bureau "shall, on the first day of January next, cause the said bureau to be withdrawn from the several States within which said bureau has acted and its operation shall be discontinued." Consequently, in early 1869, with the exception of the superintendents of education and the claims agents, the Assistant Commissioners and their subordinate officers were withdrawn from the states.

For the next year and a half the Bureau continued to pursue its education work and to process claims. In the summer of 1870, the superintendents of education were withdrawn from the states, and the headquarters staff was greatly reduced. From that time until the Bureau was abolished by an act of Congress approved June 10, 1872 (17 Stat. 366), effective June 30, 1872, the Bureau's functions related almost exclusively to the disposition of claims. The Bureau's records and remaining functions were then transferred to the Freedmen's Branch in the office of the Adjutant General. The records of this branch are among the Bureau's files.

THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU IN KENTUCKY

ORGANIZATION

From July 1865 until June 1866, Maj. Gen. C. B. Fisk served as Assistant Commissioner for both Kentucky and Tennessee. Fisk appointed Bvt. Brig. Gen. John Ely to serve as chief superintendent for the Bureau at Kentucky (from March to June 1866). Ely established his headquarters at Louisville, Kentucky, and divided his operations into five subdistricts: Lexington, Louisville, Northwestern, Southern, and Central. Records relating to Kentucky created prior to Ely's tenure may be included among the files of the Assistant Commissioner for Tennessee.

In June 1866, Maj. Gen. Jeff C. Davis was appointed as the first Assistant Commissioner for Kentucky. Superintendents (or subassistant commissioners) employed under Davis were generally responsible for from 3 to 11 counties, and agents (civilian and military) from 1 to 3 counties. Agents received their orders directly from superintendents, and all superintendents were required to submit monthly reports of their activities to the Assistant Commissioner. Brig. Gen. Sidney Burbank succeeded Davis in March 1867 and was replaced by Maj. Benjamin Runkle, who served from January 1869 to May 1869 as Assistant Commissioner and superintendent of education. In August 1870, when superintendents of education were withdrawn from the states, Runkle served as claims agent for Kentucky until July 1871. H. H. Ray succeeded Runkle as claims agent, and served in this capacity until December 1871. P. J. Overley became the claims agent in January 1872 and remained in this position until the Bureau's operations in Kentucky were discontinued in April. The major subordinate field offices for the Bureau at Kentucky included those with headquarters at Bowling Green, Lebanon, Lexington, Louisville, and Paducah. For a list of known Kentucky subordinate field office personnel and their dates of service, see the Appendix.

ACTIVITIES

While the Freedmen's Bureau did not begin full operations in Kentucky until June 1866, its activities in the state generally resembled those conducted in other Southern states. The Bureau supervised labor contracts between planters and freedmen, administered justice, assisted freedmen in the establishment of schools, helped freedmen legalize marriages, and worked with black soldiers and their heirs in processing claims relating to military service.

The regulation of written labor agreements between planters and freedmen was a major concern of the Freedmen's Bureau. In a circular issued on July 24, 1865 (Circular Number 2), Assistant Commissioner Fisk told his subordinates that for both Kentucky and Tennessee freedmen must be free to choose their own employers and that wages were to be based on supply and demand rather than a fixed rate. Bureau officials were to negotiate and approve labor contracts and enforce violations by either party. Compulsory unpaid labor was strictly prohibited. In some areas of Kentucky, planters refused to enter into written agreements with freedmen, and freedmen themselves were reluctant to enter into annual agreements for fear of being reduced to slavery. However, with strong reservations, Bureau officers negotiated monthly agreements for them but encouraged freedmen to sign annual contracts that offered yearlong employment. Wages for monthly contracts ranged from $8 to $10 a month for adult male field hands, well below the state's average wage of $15 a month for men. However by the summer of 1866, with the Bureau's insistence, adult laborers in the tobacco region of the state received $25 per month and laborers in the farm belt areas earned $12 per month. In some Kentucky counties, freedmen received a third of the crops rather than wages. However, because of the shortage of laborers in the state, freedmen were able to demand higher wages, and thus over time the sharecropping system became less attractive.¹

The Bureau worked to protect the rights and legal status of freedmen, which, despite the ending of slavery by the 13th Amendment, were still endangered by the persistence of the old slave codes. On May 30, 1865, Commissioner Howard issued Circular Number 5, authorizing Assistant Commissioners to establish courts in states where the old codes existed and the right of blacks to testify against whites was prohibited. Gen. Fisk subsequently announced to the citizens of Kentucky that freedmen courts would operate in the state as long as freedmen weren't given the same rights as whites. By 1867, as a result of several Federal court rulings, Bureau courts ceased to operate in Kentucky. When state courts denied black testimony, the agency, under provisions of the Civil Rights Act of 1866, took cases involving freedmen to the U.S. District Court of Kentucky. In instances where freedmen lacked resources to pursue their cases in Federal court, the Bureau provided transportation for witnesses and other forms of assistance. Despite the Bureau's efforts to safeguard rights and secure justice for freedmen in Kentucky, admitting the testimony of blacks against whites still remained an issue in 1869 when Bureau Assistant Commissioners and their subordinates were withdrawn from the states. However, in January 1872, with a change in public opinion and pressure from the courts, the Kentucky State Legislature amended state law and allowed blacks to testify.

When Gen. John Ely began his duties as chief superintendent for Kentucky under Gen. Fisk's supervision, there were 30 freedmen schools and more than 2,000 students. The schools were organized and maintained by black churches, with black clergy as instructors. Freedmen schools faced widespread violence and white opposition, and in many cases, teachers and students were forced to abandon efforts to maintain school buildings. Ely and his subordinate assisted freedmen in reopening schools that had been forced to close.² Under Maj. Gen. Jeff C. Davis, who replaced Ely in the summer of 1866, the number of freedmen schools increased to 54, with some 67 teachers and more than 3,200 students. Excluding the schools established at Lexington and Covington under the auspices of the Cincinnati Branch of the Western Freedmen's Aid Society and the Cincinnati Branch of the American Missionary Association, the freedmen schools were taught by black teachers who were supported by subscriptions from parents and black religious institutions. The Bureau, however, rented the building for the school at Lexington. Under Brig. Gen. Sidney Burbank, who succeeded Davis in March 1867, the number of freedmen schools increased to 96, accommodating about 5,000 students aged 6-18. By

September 1868, in spite of continued violence and opposition, the Bureau had provided support for 135 day schools and 1 night school, serving more than 6,000 students.³

On February 14, 1866, the Kentucky State Legislature passed an act legalizing marriages freedmen had entered into during slavery and authorizing black ministers to solemnize such marriages. Nearly 2 weeks later, on February 26, 1866, Assistant Commissioner Fisk issued Circular Number 5, in accordance with the Kentucky law, directing those freedmen who sought to solemnize a marriage to the county clerk for a marriage license. If the county clerk refused to issue a license, Bureau officials in the subdistricts were authorized to solemnize marriages and issue marriage certificates. Local Bureau officers were required to maintain a register of freedmen marriages and forward a report of such marriages to the Assistant Commissioner at the end of each month. Subordinate Bureau officers were also told to notify persons living as man and wife who had not legalized their marriage, to report to the Bureau to take the necessary steps to do so. Persons who failed to comply were guilty of a misdemeanor and were to be punished by a fine and imprisonment.⁴ This microfilm publication reproduces marriage licenses, certificates, and registers of marriages for the Kentucky subdistricts at Augusta, Bowling Green, Columbus, Cynthiana, Owensboro, Paducah, Mt. Sterling, and Winchester. A single freedmen marriage license and a marriage certificate from Kentucky, filed in the Bureau's headquarters records, has been reproduced on roll 1 of National Archives Microfilm Publication M1875, Marriage Records of the Office of the Commissioner, Washington Headquarters of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1861-1869.

In addition to assisting freedmen in solemnizing slave marriages and efforts to sustain the black family, the Bureau helped discharged soldiers, sailors, marines, and their heirs in claims for back pay, bounty payments, and pensions. In accordance with a law passed by Congress on March 29, 1867 (15 Stat. 26), making the Bureau the sole agent for payment of claims relating to black veterans, Bureau disbursing officers assisted freedmen in the preparation and settlement of military claims. In November 1866, in spite of the difficulties in locating veterans who fled the state for fear of violence, Assistant Commissioner Davis reported that he had forwarded more than 260 black soldiers' claims for back pay and bounty payments to Commissioner Howard's office in Washington, DC. In the following year, Assistant Commissioner Burbank reported that his office had assisted nearly 500 veterans with military claims, and in the fall of 1868, for the year ending October 10, 1868, that more than 1,100 received bounty payments through his office.⁵

RECORDS DESCRIPTION

These records consist of volumes and unbound records. The volumes reproduced in this microfilm publication were originally arranged by type of record and thereunder by volume number. No numbers were assigned to series consisting of single volumes. Years later, all volumes were arbitrarily assigned numbers by the Adjutant General's Office (AGO) of the War Department after the records came into its custody. In this microfilm publication, AGO numbers are shown in parentheses to aid in identifying the volumes. The National Archives assigned the volume numbers that are not in parentheses. In some volumes, particularly in indexes and alphabetical headings of registers, there are blank numbered pages that have not been filmed.

The volumes consist of letters and endorsements sent and received, press copies of letters sent, registers of letters received, letters and orders received, registers of freedmen court cases, special orders and circulars issued, registers of claimants, registers of complaints, marriage certificates, and monthly reports forwarded to the Assistant Commissioner. The unbound documents consist of letters and orders received, unregistered letters and narrative reports received, special orders and circulars issued, and general orders and circulars received. The unbound records also contain monthly reports; labor contracts; marriage certificates, and records relating to claims.

Some of the volumes contain more than one type of record, reflecting a common recording practice of clerks and staff officers of that period. On roll 93, for example, the volume of contracts for the Columbus field office also contains a register of marriages. Some other examples of additional series within volumes can be found in records on rolls 106, 123, and 133. Researchers should read carefully the records descriptions and arrangements in the Table of Contents to make full use of these documents.

RELATED RECORDS

In the same record group, RG 105, and related to records of the Bureau's field offices for Kentucky, are those of the Bureau headquarters in Washington, DC, and previously microfilmed records of the Assistant Commissioner and the superintendent of education for Tennessee. These record series are available in the following National Archives microfilm publications:

Records in other National Archives record groups supplement those of the Assistant Commissioner. In Records of United States Army Continental Commands, 1821-1920, RG 393, are records of the military district that included Kentucky. Records relating to employment and welfare of freedmen and abandoned property before the establishment of the Bureau are among Records of Civil War Special Agencies of the Treasury Department, RG 366. The records of the Freedman's Savings and Trust Company, 1865-1874, in Records of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, RG 101, contain information relating to former slaves who maintained accounts with bank branches in Kentucky.

The volume listings below show the initial letters of surnames included in each volume. The entries within each alphabetical division are numbered with a separate numerical sequence for each year, but don’t always span the time period listed below. The last three registers, January 1870–April 1872, are arranged by time period. Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of yours of the 16th inst. concerning the bounty claims of colored soldiers - You are correct in supposing that the receipt for money on the claim of any soldier, is to be signed by the soldier in person, and the money also to be paid by the Disb. Officer to the soldier - The Law forbids the payments even to an attorney - It is hoped you will succeed in persuading all these men not to sacrifice their claims - I return herewith your list of claimants, with the information that the persons therein named, have not been paid; but the money, for the one added in pencil to your list (supposed to be the same as the last one given by you,) is in the hands of the Disbursing Officer at Louisville Ky. ready for payment -

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir

I have just enclosed papers of Etheridge.
 All but Transmittal letter from 2^d Auditor which is in hands of Claimant and will be forwarded to you as soon as I can. Notify Claimant. I always give them the paper so they can see all about their matter. The Claimant's post office is Shannectown N.Y. and he lives about two miles from here. (or his office) he is very much in need of his money and a check sent to him direct would be the best and quickest way to reach him or the money by Express. I did not make him any advances other than fees. as I did not know I would be allowed them.

Very Respectfully

Dear Sir

In 1866 Elly Edmunds a Private in the 8th Battery of Heavy Artillery gave his discharge worth $2.50 to a Mr. Moraw who pretended to be agent for Mr. Armstrong of Paducah - and a Mr. Morrill of Lawrenceville - in order to obtain his bounty -

Edmunds tells me that about a year ago he went to Paducah and Mr. Armstrong told him the papers were in the hands of Mr. Morrill

I prepared a letter for Elly Edmunds and sent it to Capt A. Benson Brown in charge of the Bureau at Paducah who writes me that Mr. Armstrong says the claim is in the hands of Mr. Morrill of Lawrenceville -

Will you kindly enough to call on Mr. Morrill and get him to write me the condition of the claim - if I have been to hand or do this for me to save me the trouble of writing to Washington to trace up the claim - your friend here as well and appointed William Fowler Brevet to procure for me my pay & and about June 1868 I received word from Capt Sawell a sub Lt and or agent of the Bureau at Owensboro Ky ~~to come~~ to see him at Owensboro I immediately went to Owensboro and saw Capt Sawell and he gave me my discharge and said he would have my money $100 - for me in the course of eight or ten days I took my discharge and came home to Hartford Ky and in the course of two months I got word from him again to come back to him that he had my money I again went to see him when he said he looking for the money by the next Packet which would be ~~the~~ there next Sunday evening this took place Thursday and he kept me there waiting on expenses until Tuesday when I left but previous to my starting he told me not to be uneasy that I would get my money,

He told me however that he could not pay off one at a time that some ten or twenty of us would be paid off at a time, and I called on him the third time when he said he was out of office then that I would have to go to Louisville for it or he could get it for me but would charge me ten per cent on the amount due me to get it, my discharge is endorsed

Sir

Your letter enclosing the reports of your assistants relative to alleged frauds in Kentucky has been received. The reports only confirm my own convictions. I supposed all the time that there was a great deal more smoke than fire. I am sorry that some of the agents think that I have suspicions of their honesty.

My only motive in writing you was to put you on your guard in relation to these reports that were afloat. Allow me to say that if the payments of bounties in other states were managed as well as in Ky. there would be less cause for complaint than now exists.

Respectfully,
Geo. W. Allen

Gen. O. O. Howard, Comd.

Major General.

I have the honor to return this paper to you, and to respectfully, but most earnestly protest the decision herein given. I was at the expense of a journey to Washington, for the sole purpose of seeing you about this matter. Mr. Drew informed me that you were very much engaged, and I left without attaining my object.

I saw Gen. Sewall, and when I left him, I did so with the understanding that this case was to be recommitted, for the purpose of giving me an opportunity to file evidence in support of my claim. It seems by this letter, that I (over) was sadly mistaken.

General Howard, I state to you, that a most wicked and gross injustice has been done me in this matter.

I state to you that there was not one word of legal evidence before that Board, which could invalidate my claim, and I think that I can prove this to be true, by the evidence of the most prominent member of the Board.

I can produce witnesses (and as credible men as can be found in Louisville) who will establish my claim beyond a doubt, & prove that the only man who made complaint voluntarily, purgured himself in nearly every statement that he made before that board.

I brought letters with me (over)

To show you, from Gen. J. C. Davis. Gen. Wood. Col. Harlan. Gov. Bramlette and testimonials from Hon. Aaron S. Miller, the Mayor of the City of Rockford Ill., where I have lived twelve years, and from the Clerks of the three Courts, and notices which have been published in papers, of the most flattering character. I sufficient I think to establish a character, which to say the least, ought to entitle me to the consideration of a fair hearing.

General Howard, I have seen and conversed with you, and I believe you to be an honest man and a lover of justice. In the name of Justice, I respectfully ask that you will countermand the within decision, and reopen this case - so that I may be heard in my own defence.

I have the honor to be,
Very Respectfully General,

Dear Sir:

Your letter of the 30th ult. is just received. What I stated to the claim agent who called on me (perhaps his name was Marks) was that he was the first man that had made any complaint against General Punkle, (Gen. P.) that I had regarded him as a thoroughly honest man, and that the closest sort of inspection had not reversed my opinion; but that I was prepared to consider charges made against any officer. I wrote the charges of the claim agt. down and then sent him to Mr. Drew telling him, in case in case such charges were proved - that is charges of falsehood and perjury or the procurement of perjury to cover his (Gen Banks's) dishonest transactions. I should be exceedingly glad to have that officer tried and punished.

I say the same with regard to every officer in my department. If he has succeeded in robbing the colored people of their bounties under cover of misstatements and perjury, the sooner I am rid of him the better. But this does not imply that I believe one word of the accusations that come from es parte sources. I did treat the young man and his friend who was with him with courtesy;
they were strangers to me.

purchase their claims at a grate discount, please let me hear from you on their

Sir: In answer to your letter of the 8th inst., I am directed to inform you that no certificate in your favor has been received at this Bureau, and to state that you should make application to your Attorney for information respecting the condition of your claim.

Your claim, if forwarded to the Auditor's Office, is probably awaiting or undergoing examination therein. If, after examination, anything is found to be due you, a certificate for the amount will be sent to your Attorney, who is required to forward the same to this Bureau, with his bills for legal fee and notarial expenses, and cash advances (if he has made any to you); on receipt of which, the amount of the certificate, less the attorney's bill as above, will be remitted to you through the Disbursing Officers of this Bureau. An effort will be made to ascertain the condition of your claim, and the result communicated to you.

Geo W Dalloch
Bvt. Brig.-Gen. and Chief D.O., Bureau R., F., and A.L.

my inability to defray expense of journey from this place to Paducah to prove my identity - and asking what kind of proof would be required, and whether or not documentary proof would be received - and stating further, that I had no acquaintances in Paducah - In answer to my letter I have just rec'd the enclosed letter dated Dec. 7th, by which the payment of my Bounty is postponed until after January 1st 1869, unless I go to Louisville Ky. for it, it gives me no information upon the matter contained in my letter, or to how I am to prove my identity, nor on whom I am to call in Louisville -

It seems to me that there is something wrong about all this delay, & the requirement to report personally at Capt. Brown's office in Paducah - It involves a heavy expense and I am poor - I have no money & to hire some one or more to go with me to prove my identity will take a good deal of my Bounty - Paducah Ky. is not less than two hundred thirty five miles from here, and I don't know any body there - Louisville is one hundred and twenty miles from this place.

 I am not acquainted there - It will be a great hardship for me to be compelled to identify myself either at Paducah or Louisville,
 - there will not be much Bounty left, after hiring the necessary witnesses to go along with me, and paying all expenses - It does seem to me that the Government can provide some better course than the one indicated by Capt. Brown.

I lay this matter before you, and most earnestly & respectfully ask your early attention if practicable, that I may be allowed to prove my identity here, among my friends and acquaintances & that I may soon be enabled to get my money for I assure you I am in great want of it I don't understand why there is so much delay -

I have the honor to state that I have inquired into the matter of Soldiers Claims still remaining in the hands of Bureau Officers in an unfinished condition, and find that many of the Civilian Agents who were discharged, retained in their hands numbers of discharges and unfinished claims, which they turned over to the Chiefs when relieved.

These ought to be completed. In view of the fact that the number is large and the Chief Serb Assistant Commissioners have not clerks to do this extra duty, I recommend that Henry B. Howard be appointed as requested by Colonel Delmeton
